HOT Eggshelland

The Cedar Lee Theatre, known for its world-class selection of Indie Films, is featuring this documentary directed by former Clevelander Christopher Noice. The world premiere will be presented here on Fri 4/17 and Sat 4/18 at 7PM. A Lyndhurst tradition, Eggshelland (pictured) is the story of Ron and Betty Manolio, and their unique 52-year family legacy -- an inspiring, colorful and poignant display of art (60K+ colored Easter eggs?!?) that has transcended obsession to become a Midwestern pilgrimage for some. Witty, poignant, perfect... and pure Cleveland on the big screen.
